Please note that in accordance with the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006, all roles in schools are now classified as "regulated". This means that they are all exceptions to the ROA and therefore you are required to declare any convictions (including bind over and cautions) regardless of whether or not they would be considered spent in other circumstances. Failure to declare a conviction, caution, bind-over or pending prosecution, may disqualify you from appointment or result in summary dismissal. Aurora Academies Trust is committed to safeguarding the welfare of our students and expect all employees to share this commitment. Enhanced DBS checks will be carried out on all successful applicants. Disclosure of a criminal record will not necessarily debar you from employment with Aurora Academies Trust, this will depend on the nature of the offence/s, frequency and when they occurred.

Disclosure of a criminal record

All positions within Aurora Academies Trust will be exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. You must declare all cautions and convictions including those that are 'spent', and you will be subject to an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check if you are successful. You must provide details of any conviction(s) or offence(s) in a sealed envelope marked private and confidential with your application form.

If you do have a spent conviction this will not automatically disqualify you from employment. Aurora Academies Trust operates a Disclosure procedure in line with DBS guidelines. If you are successfully selected for a position within Aurora Academies Trust you will be subject to this procedure. All Disclosures are carried out in the strictest confidence and are made only in connection with your application for employment and for no other purpose. All school-based posts will require an Enhanced Disclosure

In the event of a successful candidate having a criminal record, the candidate will have the opportunity of discussing the disclosure with a senior member of staff. As a minimum, the following will have been taken into account:

- Whether the conviction or information was disclosed during the application stage;
- Whether the conviction or information revealed is relevant to the job;
- Whether the record is of a serious nature which would mean an offer of employment cannot be made
- How long ago the offence(s) took place;
- The candidate's age at the time of the offence(s);
- The number and pattern of offences;
- Any other relevant circumstances

No decision about offering a position of employment will be made until your explanation and the above issues have been considered.

If you believe the disclosure information is inaccurate you would need to contact the DBS.

All disclosure information is kept securely and will only be seen by those who need to use it to carry out their duties. The disclosure forms are not kept on personal files.

Declaration – relatives and other interests
